The universe contains three [3] fundamental types of planets.

Custom designed and built architectural spheres [1] used as universe headquarters, mansion worlds, universities, detention spheres and more. They are non-evolutionary planets specially built for educational and administrative purposes.

Naturally occurring evolutionary spheres that gradually form from the aggregation of various forms of cosmic debris. These can be divided into 2 subcategories: life supporting [2] and non-life supporting [3].

This presentation will deal with life supporting evolutionary spheres, planets like our own. According to universe plans, planets like ours are scheduled to progress through a series of 7 carefully crafted evolutionary and revelatory steps on its way to the pinnacle of planetary civilization which is referred to as the era of Light and Life.

This process begins in earnest at stage 1 with the appearance of the first evolutionary humans, and progresses along a linear timeline through the other 6 stages. It is to be noted that the 7 stages are not necessarily all the same length of time. Some are much longer, and some are relatively short. The conditions of the planet and the type of life it supports have a definite impact on the speed of progress.

Since our planet fell into rebellion long ago, many unusual things and delays have happened to our evolving civilization.

- We have long been without proper leadership.
- We have been cut off from useful universe resources.
- We have only received a partial Adamic uplift.
- There has been no consistency in our planetary evolution.
- We seem to have completely skipped over the Magisterial Mission(s) of stage 4.
- We have only earned, by merit, our sovereignty over the Soil and Land jurisdictions.
- We still only have delegated authority (vicegerency) over the Sea, Air, and Space jurisdictions which we continue to severely abuse.

The header of this matrix displays the 7 evolutionary and revelatory stages along the planetary timeline (black background with white text). The column on the left displays the 10 primary aspects of civilization that are immediately subject to this planetary growth process. Next we will explore where we should be in our planetary evolution, and contrast that with where we actually are today.

RACE / BIOLOGY Full racial diversity. Some races obliterated.	Racial struggles start to diminish. The races are significantly purified. Some races may still be obliterated. Apex of evolution is reached.	Complete elimination of the unfit. Racial strains further purified. Upstepping of intellectual capacity. Extensive racial blending.	The mortal races are blended and biologically fit. There are no race or colour problems; literally all nations and races are of one blood.	The problems of disease and delinquency are virtually solved. Degeneracy nearly eliminated by selective reproduction.	Life spans approaching 500 yrs. Reproduction is intelligently controlled.
GOVERNMENT Tribal	Advanced tribal. The planet is established in the circuits of the system. Culminates in a period of intense nationalism.	Development of internationalism. Representative government begins. The Most Highs of the constellations begin to rule in the affairs of men.	Self-government fairly well established by the end of this age. Only the most fit allowed to govern.	Entirely new system of government grows up to supplant the crude regimes of former times leading to less government.	Government is undergoing radical transformations. Representative government is being replaced by the rule of individual self-control.
CULTURE Cave dwellers or cliff residents, also tree dwellers.	Each expanding group of mortals tends to seek isolation. Family life begins. Domestication of animals and development of home arts.	The golden age of exploration and the final subduing of the planet. From carnivorous to omnivorous. Education becomes world-wide.	Society begins to return to more simplified forms of living. The age of the flowering of art, music, and higher learning.	The joy of living takes on new colour. and the reactions of life are exalted to heavenly heights of tone and timbre.	An entirely new order of society has arrived. Society more nearly approaches the ideals of social brotherhood and spiritual equality.
RELIGION Biologic religion of fear and superstition.	First revelations of higher truth and universe organization (local system). Philosophic thought begins.	Religion increasingly becomes a planetary affair. Truth is revealed up to the administration of the constellations.	The fullness of a great religious awakening, a world-wide spiritual enlightenment. Truth is revealed up to the Local Universe.	One religion. Cosmic reality and communion with spiritual reality. Revelations are extended to the superuniverse.	The revelation of truth extends to the central universe and to Paradise. The kingdom of heaven is appearing. The glory of God is spreading.
LANGUAGE / EDUCATION Simple evolutionary language.	The different races often develop separate languages.	Gradually the languages of the races give way to the tongue of the violet people (local system language).	One language.	One language. Entirely new system of education grows up to supplant the crude regimes of former times.	One language. Some begin to learn the Local Universe language.
ETHICS Ethics of the jungle. Morals of the primeval forests.	The home begins to materialize. The realization of sex equality.	Great ethical advancement characterizes this era; the brotherhood of man is the goal of its society. World-wide peace.	The brotherhood of man flourishes, and the nations are learning to live in peace and tranquility.	This is an age characterized by the world-wide pursuit of moral culture and spiritual truth.	A new order of society has arrived. The state of society approaches the ideals of social brotherhood and spiritual equality.
SCIENCE &amp; TECHNOLOGY Learns to make fire and basic tools.	Hand tools. Little to no mechanization. Low inventiveness.	The age of great invention, energy control, and mechanization. Multiform manufacture and the control of natural forces.	The eve of a great and culminating intellectual development. The physical sciences have already reached their pinnacle.	The military branches of national resistance are passing away.	The physical difficulties and material problems have been largely solved; the planet is ripening for advanced life and a more settled existence.
ECONOMY &amp; FINANCE Hunting & survival of the fittest.	The agricultural age begins.	The agricultural age is completed and the urban and industrial age begins.	Economic liberation. The daily work required to sustain independence is about two and one-half hours.	There are still many nations but the era of international harmony is really arriving.	The economic system is undergoing radical transformation. Every adult works about one hour each day.
THOUGHT ADJUSTERS Receptive to temporary indwelling. Spirit fusion potential.	They come in increasing numbers.	They come in increasing numbers. Capacity for Adjuster fusion increases. Acceleration of spiritual progress.	During this epoch the majority of the world mortals are Adjuster indwelt. Still necessary for the will creatures to choose the Thought Adjusters.	All normal-minded will creatures of that world will receive Adjusters as soon as they attain the age of moral responsibility, of spiritual choice.	This is the dispensation when many mortals are translated from among the living.

It is painfully obvious that our current reality does not fit into stage 5, except for the fact that we have received our Bestowal Son 2,000 yrs ago.

The 7 Evolutionary Ages

Our actual state of progress as of today is shown with red text. Instead of following a neat uniform progress, we have become scattered and sorely lagging in many categories.

* Our Magisterial Mission(s) never happened and we received our Bestowal Son instead. The possibility remains that we may yet receive a future Magisterial Mission(s).

** Two occurrences are exceptionally noteworthy. 1) We are currently in possession of revelations going all the way to Paradise (stage 6). 2) Trinity Teacher Sons are already here (stage 7).

The next 2 charts (bar and scatter) help to visualize the immense disparity between the major areas of human growth on our planet. We are significantly delayed and underdeveloped in 8 categories, about where we should be in 1, and significantly overdeveloped in another.

Our actual levels of progress through the 7 evolutionary ages
Ideally they should all be in the blue zone 5
