Opening

PRAYER: Mother and Father, thank you for this opportunity to be of service to you, to our world, and to our Planetary Seraphim and all of the other helpers that participate with us today. Center us in your presence and circuits of mind, Soul, Spirit, and Personality that we may operate as one and project our energies where we are guided today. As we settle into our hearts, may we feel the flow of love through us and project it out into the planet where we are guided today by our helpers. Thank you and may your WILL be done.

Lesson

MONJORONSON: My beloved brethren, peace be upon you! This is Monjoronson and I will be facilitating our time together today. I have not addressed this group in several years, yet I have been involved in what you have been co-creating with the Seraphim and the other assistance that Michael has provided for the upliftment of Urantia into the circuits of Nebadon.

The hour is here wherein great changes are about to unfold on the planet. There is a process underway by which this world is now being adjudicated. I know for many, you have questions about what this means, and again we beg your indulgence through your faith in allowing us to conduct these energetic upliftments and corrections so that Urantia may progress on its journey toward Light & Life and for all life to gain a more balanced way of living.

As we begin, take some deep breaths. Allow the spiritual energies to flow through you. Spiritual energy is as important to you as air and food and water for it nourishes your souls, stimulates your faith capacities, ignites your intuition, and facilitates reception of your Indwelling Spirits. Let this flow now, reverberate in you, and when you feel ready simply project it from your hearts into the planet before you in your mind's eye. (Pause)

Focus on my name and let my name embrace and envelop the globe as you see it in your mind's eye. Feel your desire for my presence to become more manifest upon Urantia through the circuits of mind. I will engage with you here at this point along with many spiritual and celestial personalities also engaged thusly.(Pause)

The world has had difficulty in accepting divine bestowals. You know from your Urantia text how the previous four personal incarnations have turned out. We are taking every precaution to ensure that this next materialization achieves its full fruition. But as you might well imagine, there is much preparation to be achieved before that event materially occurs. The preparation is underway and today you are assisting in this. Continue to focus on my name as it envelops the globe, and if you wish, you may use that familiar spiral, counter-clockwise rotation to weave my energetic presence into the mindal circuits impinging upon this world's system of consciousness. (Pause)

Continue to focus from your heart centers. However, allow the word ADJUDICATION to form within your mind's eye. When you feel you have a fairly strong grasp of this word energy, project it from your hearts into the globe before you. Let this word embrace the planet. Let the energetic dynamic of what this word means and its significance and value to planetary life unfold. Keep your heart energy as strong as possible as you see this word commingling with my name as we moved in these circuits, my beloved brethren. (Pause)

Planetary ADJUDICATION is an essential component of the Correcting Time activities. This is a time of choosing, and through this mass awakening now underway many people will sense this need to choose. Michael's plans for this world are such that He desires His children to choose Father—to know of His LOVE and MERCY and GOODNESS. This is an opportunity of recognition of Spirit Within and therein where people are able to perceive their own Spirits.

We invite you to allow these energies of Spirit to move through you more as you focus on my name and ADJUDICATION energies. (Pause)

Join with us now as more circuitry enhancement is conducted. Allow these words to form in your mind's eye: IT IS TIME FOR PLANETARY ADJUDICATION. IT IS TIME FOR PLANETARY ADJUDICATION. IT IS TIME FOR PLANETARY ADJUDICATION. Let this spiral around the globe adding more spiritual energy into what you are holding in your heart. (Pause)

There is one more focus to add. Envision the word energy of REDEMPTION in your mind's eye and let that spiral around the globe as well. All of these energies and circuits are being fertilized with Michael's LOVE—His LOVE for this world, HIS LOVE for you, His LOVE for all life; and allow the word energy of REDEMPTION to engage with (Pause)

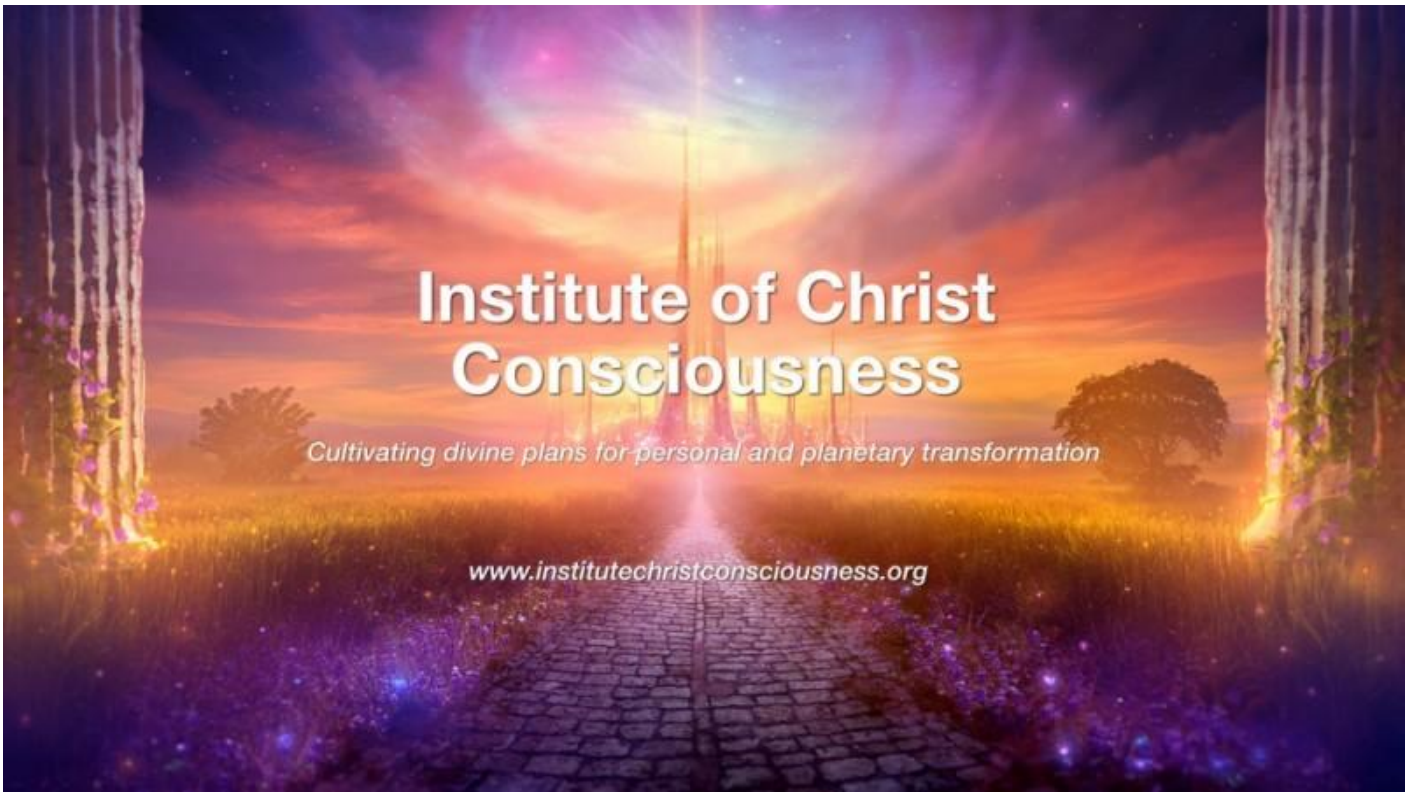

Closing

As these energies continue to be applied into the mindal system of Urantia, more and more will you see this outworking of what these energies are here to perform through human choosing. Be gentle with yourselves during these times of change now that many shadows, as some people call them within the human nature, will be revealed in LIGHT. And so we ask you to be loving, gentle, and patient with yourselves, and of course, to be loving, gentle and patient with your brethren.

This is not an easy time for most Urantians. This world will prevail. Michael's TRUTH and PRESENCE will prevail here, and your Mother Nebadonia's presence is getting stronger and her MOTHERLY essence is being awakened in many hearts now. You know you are living in an extraordinary time. You are all extraordinary human beings for you have answered the call of the Spirit Within and now it is up to you how you will use this period in Urantia's history to be the best human you can be. Do not admonish yourself when you falter in your own expectations of yourselves. Go to your Indwelling Spirits. Ask to see where you have faltered. Ask Michael to uplift you and uphold you in His divine qualities that you may continue to absorb His PRESENCE and be fortified in it.

I will leave you now in this manner. Thank you for your continued participation and for what you have held for us today as we continue to build these circuits upon Urantia for more correction and healing to occur. Engage with us when you can during your days, and always remember to spend time with Father Within that the love within you may grow, expand and swell and reverberate to others who need to know the Father's LOVE within them. Enjoy your lives more and more each day and trust that Michael's hand is guiding this planet to its glorious destiny. And with that I withdraw. Good day.
