Opening

PRAYER: Mother and Father, thank you for this opportunity to participate in the healing of our world along with our Planetary Seraphim, Gabriel and the Archangels, our Magisterial Son, and all of the other celestial helpers who are thusly engaged with us. We are grateful that we can come before you as your children and collaborate in this way, as you connect us in the various circuits of Mind, Soul, Spirit and Personality. We also ask for your divine protection for this call from any outside interference. We are here to follow the leadings of our Spirit, attune to the guidance of our helpers and share our heart energies into the planetary circuits. Thank you for aligning us as one in your WILL and may it be done now.

Lesson

MONJORONSON: Greetings, my beloved brethren! This is Monjoronson. I welcome you to our time together today whereupon we are all now working together as one for the transformation of Urantians' consciousness to reflect the divine values of Light and Life—all that takes origin within the Paradise Father Himself.

Take a few deep breaths now. Let the currents of mindal thoughts guide you in the direction of your Indwelling Spirits. Focus on Father Within of the relationship you have with your Paradise Source and Center to take deeper root in you now. This is your sacred time of holy communion with Spirit. Before we do our outward focusing, give yourselves a few moments to connect with Father Within that you may engage at the higher superconscious level today as we collaborate with you. (Pause)

Urantia is poised for great change. This world's evolution continues to advance. Michael's plans of correction are underway, and it is the time of great inner stimulation within the circuits of mind to awaken to the inner call of Spirit. What you see outworking now is this inner awakening gaining strength and presence throughout the circuits of consciousness all around the globe.

You are living and witnessing a great event in Urantian history. In future times Urantians will look back upon this time with great wonderment and see the truth of the lessons that are being learned each day as this world continues to shake off the rebellion agenda. Future generations will be appreciative of your efforts and how you have answered the call of Spirit and have been guided by Father Within. They will marvel at how you were able to open and trust to our presence among you now. It is a great faith step you are taking that future generations will have more evidence of our presence. So do your best to be appreciative of what is occurring now in the ways that you are being guided to participate with us.

With that being said, I invite you to focus on your heart centers—that mighty place where spiritual energy can be received, perceived, and shared with others. You are learning about the power of your intentions and how to use your creative gifts through this heart circuit, especially when you are engaged in service to others.

This is a mighty portal, and I invite you as you center on your hearts, take a few deep breaths and ask for it to be expanded in the encircuitment of your Holy Mother Spirit. Allow Her to gently reverberate Her presence through this mighty energy center, allowing Her Love to flow through and help you deepen your capacity for Her presence to function within you.

Now when you are ready, invite these words to form upon your hearts. Envision the words THE LIBERATION OF URANTIA to form in your mind's eye, yet gently pulse in your hearts, and send that into the world: THE LIBERATION OF URANTIA. Let the power within your heart not only formulate these words but add to the enhanced intention for this to unfold now. Hold this as a strong and steady focus as best you can, and you also may use that familiar counter-clockwise spiral rotation around the globe. Ask Mother to fortify your heart centers in Her LOVE and COMPASSION for Urantia—for all life here as we engage with you now in these circuits of mind. Continue to feel the expansion in Mother as THE LIBERATION OF URANTIA is conducted now. (Pause)

You might consider this as the untethering of those mindsets that have perpetuated certain thought forms--conceptual constructs that influence how people feel and think. When we work in these circuits, we are adding more spiritual light, a type of illumination that reflects divine values of TRUTH, GOODNESS, and BEAUTY. This is the food, if I may use that word, for your minds. When your mindal circuits are open to these spiritual frequencies, human thought changes and you begin to perceive your reality with greater spiritual insight that can be conveyed by your Indwelling Father Fragments. Is this not the objective of the Spirit Within? And yet there have been many impediments placed upon Urantian consciousness to deflect or thwart the reception of Spirit Within.

As you hold this focus for THE LIBERATION OF URANTIA, we can move into those areas where more light can be penetrated into those shadows, more truth can be revealed, more goodness to be perceived by those who are ready to engage with Spirit. And herein is where you engage with us to liberate Urantian consciousness. Continue to hold this focus as we continue our ministrations in these circuits of mind that new depths and breadths are functioning. (Pause)

Shift focus slightly that you may engage more fully with your Mother Nebadonia. Breathe deeply, asking Her to expand you in more of Her qualities of LIFE and LOVE. Let Her JOY OF LIFE reverberate within you. Let Her move in those circuits within your own mindal system to expand you in Her presence; that Her action may flow into you and from you into the planet. As you engage with Her, ask for Her SONG OF JOY to move into those planetary circuits for the reverberations of this quality of Her presence to prevail: MOTHER'S SONG OF JOY. You may also use that spiral rotation as your visualization if this helps you to maintain that focus as we continue to engage in these circuits of LIBERATION OF URANTINA MIND. MOTHER'S SONG OF JOY, allow it to reverberate within you, helping you to feel more of Her LOVE and COMPASSION for this world. (Pause)

In the coming days, we invite you to focus on your Holy Mother Spirit and the intimacy within which Her presence lives in your being. Do you know your Mother? Do you feel Her? Do you allow Her presence to open you to new places and spaces of receptivity within your minds? Your mindal circuits are expansive. You have a great capacity. And yet so much of your mindal circuitry has held its position in fear and doubt, insecurity and uncertainty. It is time for these spirit toxins to lose their grasp upon how you think and feel.

My use of the word "you" is intended for the collective. It is time for the LIBERATION OF URANTIA from these influences. These are false constructs generated by an agenda that took you away from your rightful path of evolution. Now this you know. Now it is time to move into that domain of sensing your Mother more. You may learn how to apply Her merciful ministrations to your brothers and sisters, those who are now awakening and those who have yet to awaken. Mother knows each individual so intimately but they do not yet know Her. Learn to be a mother to your brethren, to be a nurturer of their souls, to be compassionate with what they are undergoing, and to point them in the direction of their Indwelling Spirits.

Now you have heard these words many, many times before. And yet, we say this to you again because now it is time to BE these aspects of Spirit Personality that you all have the capacity therefor. So continue to focus on MOTHER'S SONG OF JOY. Let that blend in with LIBERATION OF URANTIA as we continue to minister in these circuits of mind where there is great need for this awareness be infused into the circuits of human consciousness. (Pause)

All around the globe people are seeking change. Many people see change external to themselves. What is most needed now is this internal change, change of direction to the Spirit Within. Change of perception of the mind of truth may prevail through the circuit of the Spirit of Truth. You have the requisite spiritual equipment within. Now it is a matter of how do you all use this to foster planetary transformation throughout your social institutions. We are here to guide you in that direction but it is your efforts that will truly transform this world.

So in in coming days, focus on the LIBERATION OF URANTIA and MOTHER'S SONG OF JOY that you may grow from this experience and come into a greater awareness of the personal creative power seated in you by the Father in Paradise to be the most lovely and spiritually minded human being that you can become. You have it in you. It is innate but it is up to you to use this and to increasingly align your volition—the great gift given to you by the Father—in alignment with the Father's presence within you.

Let these words settle in. Let them go deeper, deeper, deeper into your mindal systems, creating new sparks of awareness within that Father's presence within you may illuminate you to new truths and understandings. (Pause)

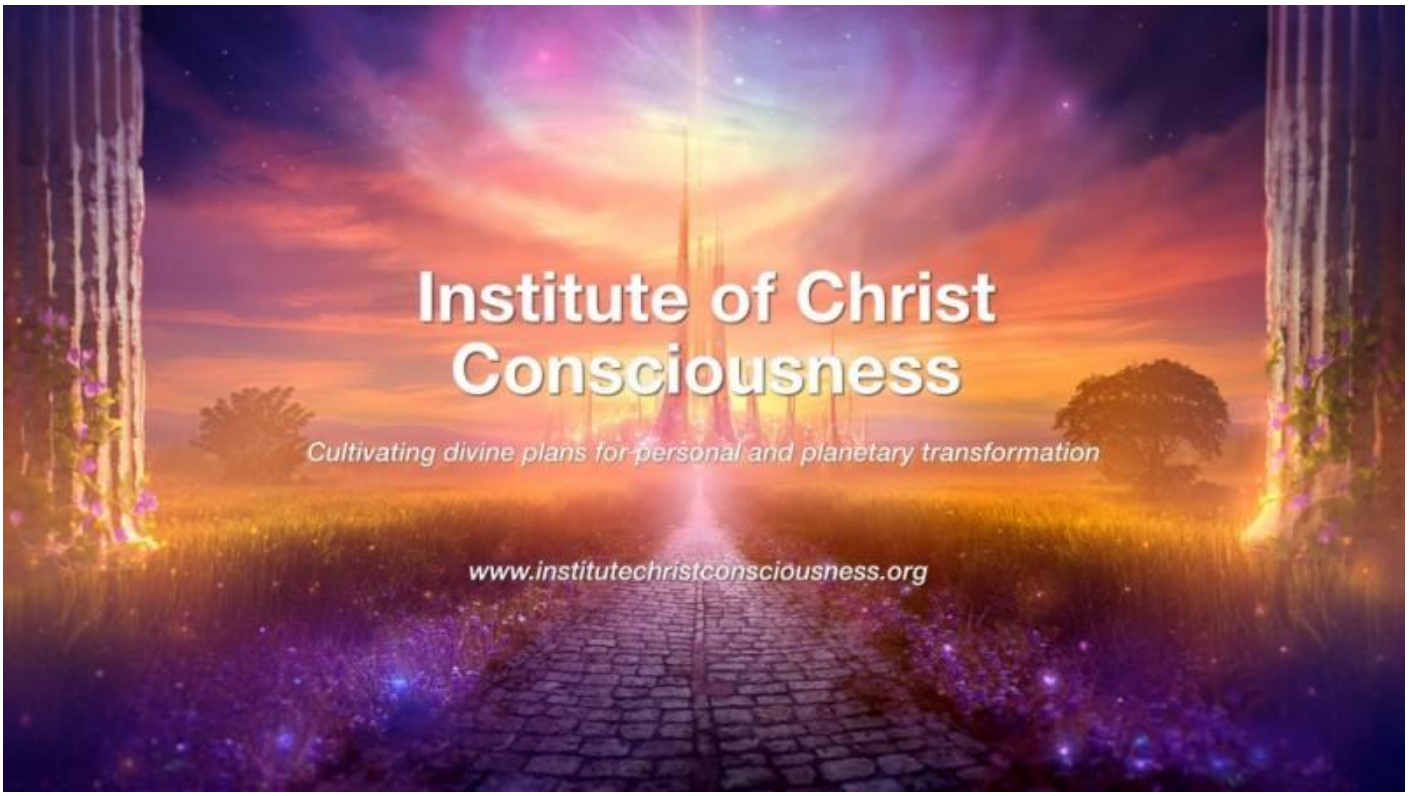

Ask for these energies to penetrate deeper into collective circuits that many more may awaken an open and come into their awareness of the Father Within. It is time. In the coming days, untether yourselves from the fear constructs by simply sitting with Mother and ask for Her SONG OF JO Y to reverberate throughout your being.

Trust that your Indwelling Spirit will guide you through this releasing process that you may emerge stronger, more spiritually alive and vibrant, your soul may be strengthened and you come into a greater recognition of your purpose for your life at this particular place in your planet's history. You all have a roll to play and you can open to that more through your relationships with your Mother and Father and your Indwelling Spirits. Trust in their LOVE and let your guidance create new places of inner awareness that you may convey those beautiful gifts of Personality to others in need. Allow the words we have shared with you to integrate more deeply into your beings as we now conduct more integration into planetary circuitry. (Pause)

Closing

Our objectives are complete. Thank you for participating with us. Trust in the changes that are underway, my brethren, that your soul lights may shine more brightly out into the world to help many others heal and come into their own awareness of what lives within them. You are living in a mighty time, and it does require that you become powerful souls in yourselves and to use that in service where you are guided and sense the inspiration.

I take my leave of you now, but you have access to me when you wish to engage with me. I will respond. And as your own mindal circuits become more infused with MOTHER'S SONG OF JOY, may you perceive more of the help that you have to support your holy sacred service upon Urantia and become the mighty transformers that this world needs. I leave you in the Father's LOVE and invoke His blessings upon all of you. Good day.
