Topic: Restructuring Planetary Mind/Memory System in Father's Love
T/R: Donna D'Ingillo

PRAYER: Our Divine Parents and Magisterial Son, we welcome this opportunity to collaborate with you and all of the wonderful helpers you have assigned to this call today. You know exactly where we are on this very important phase of planetary correction. We are here to co-create in your WILL that what you wish us to hold today in our focus will bring more of the spiritual vitality back to this world, and move into those places where our mind-memory systems need this advancement and upstepping. Thank you for weaving us together as one in your HOLY WILL that what we produce from our hearts may add to the spiritual synergy and symmetry underway on the planet. As always, we ask for your WILL to be done through your MERCY and GRACE. Thank you so much!

MICHAEL: Greetings, my beloved children. This is your Father Michael. Center yourselves in your Spirits of Truth that you may receive more of my LOVE. As you do this, know that I will minister in you and build you in more of the innate spiritual energies that you need for your souls to grow, and to help you express more of your Father-bestowed Personality potential. Simply engage with me now and allow me to minister to you, each and every one. (Pause)

Your world is in the midst of a great restructuring process. The plans of correction for this world have been carefully cultivated over many years, implementing certain spiritual dynamics into the planetary mind-memory system, and then we observe how you as a human population absorb these energies. You have made many strides and gains in opening to the ways of Spirit. However, you do understand that there is so much more to come, and that you are in a transition phase presently while this great structuring is underway.

The restructuring affects all life here—your own personal energy systems, your human natures, the way in which the planetary energies have been misused over the millennia of time. And we are in a phase of great restructuring. It is important for each individual to open to their spiritual potential, and to observe within what has held you back from achieving this to your souls' desire. The Spirit within you has your divine life plans, not only for this human incarnation, but for your long ascension careers. What your Mother and I wish to provide to you today is more of the restructuring dynamic that will help you observe internally what has held you back with greater faith, peace, assurance, and love.

There is nothing to fear in the restructuring your Mother and I wish to conduct for you today. We make this invitation available to you. It is up to you whether or not to receive what we wish to provide. It is a gift, and yet you are free to receive or reject. But we hope you will receive, because it will open you to greater inner dimensions of LOVE that can calibrate into your minds and bodies and bring you back into a higher order of LIFE.

So as we begin, I invite you to simply focus on me, and ask for me to restructure you in what you need to grow, to move beyond the limitations from the past that may still be festering in you in ways you are not yet ready to recognize. Allow my LOVE to be bigger part of the restructuring process. Simply receive me, and know of my LOVE for you in very deep ways. (Pause)

If is it helpful, you may focus on these words: I AM RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S LOVE. I AM RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S LOVE. I AM RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S LOVE. Be in a place of trust. Do your best to not engage your mind, but simply be in that place of your heart and soul, and feel your willingness to open to what I wish to provide to you, my beloved children. (Pause)

There is DIVINE ORDER in LIFE. Each world, such as yours, has a divine plan and purpose. The cultivation of it is orderly and structured, albeit it takes many epochs of time to complete. You live on a world that has been disordered and the plans of life have been thwarted by those who would take this planet and make it a part of their own creation. But now this is changed as you well know. You are in the midst of returning to the DIVINE ORDER OF LIFE and the restructuring process is part of the restoration of DIVINE ORDER, not only for your human energy systems but for the planet as a whole.

There are many adjustments that need to be made over a period of time. We make these adjustments and then we observe. Then when it is time for adjustments to be conducted, those are then applied. It would be very difficult for you to understand fully just how many adjustments need to be conducted here over time. So we ask for your indulgence and for your faith in us to maintain that steadiness of correction that these changes may be conducted with the greatest amount of peace and stability within how you operate as humans; so that you can perceive the inner changes and cooperate with them with greater faith and trust in the DIVINE ORDER OF LIFE.

Now, you are at a phase where we can make more of these adjustments, calibrating your energy systems to the higher circuits of the universe wherein your minds are able to pick up on higher concepts and to focus your attention on spiritual values and principles that will help establish more DIVINE ORDER on this world through your own human efforts. It is in this restructuring process that this is possible. While it is difficult to know exactly what needs to be restructured within you, your Mother and I here to provide you with what you need. Continue to focus on me and how you are being structured in Father's LOVE, and receive. (Pause)

Over time, you may notice subtle changes occurring within. This is part of recognizing what is underway in you to bring you into greater alignment with the divine plans for your life. And here you are able to open to more willingness and trust in those plans that you may complete the objectives your Spirit has for your human lives and find great fulfillment and purpose in so doing. We share these concepts with you because you are ready to embark upon this great change underway on the planet, preparing you to be a of greater service to your brothers and sisters who are still sleeping and unaware of the great transformation now underway. In time all will know of this great phase. In time all will appreciate what is being done to help you open to the greater dimensions of LIFE all around you. But for now, we simply ask you to receive that you may grow as strong and beautiful in who you are as a son and daughter of God, and be able to radiate that love from your Spirit to your brothers and sisters. Continue to receive. (Pause)

As you know, the personal restructuring process is part of the greater planetary restructuring. It is designed to help you cultivate your human natures in this larger bandwidth of Evolutionary Deity that you are all contributing into whether you consciously recognize it or not. This is part of your soul purpose—to learn the nature of what it means for Deity to evolve through you and to cooperate with the divine plans that are revealed through your willingness to cooperate with the cultivation of a heavenly order on this planet.

Each person has a particular role to play. It does not matter whether it is a larger role on the planet, or a smaller role where you are able to relate to another person in a loving manner. All efforts are important, necessary, and welcome. So, we ask you to complete the objectives set forth by your Spirits for your human lives that you may continue to be restructured in your own inner divine plans and be here on this world in a manner that suggests you are operating in a Godly way.

Let my words settle into your minds and hearts. Let them deepen upon your souls; make that indelible impression and help you cooperate with the Father's presence within. Thank you, my dear children, for your willingness and your faith. (Pause)

My beloved children, as this great restructuring process continues to move through the planet, enjoy the experiences your Spirits guide you to live one day at a time in faith, knowing that you are indeed opening up to a greater endowment of your Self. And let peace and joy ring resoundingly through your minds and bodies and bring you into greater alignment with the DIVINE WILL RESTRUCTURING, not only yourself, but having a reverberating effect into the planet as a whole.

I leave you now in this manner that my Brother Monjoronson may address you as He conducts the energies from this point forward, that the restructuring that you are holding in your hearts may reverberate into the planet as a whole. Remember to come to me when you need an inner boost of peace and stability as this planet undergoes its major restructuring now to return to DIVINE ORDER and the RESTORATION OF LIFE. You live in my LOVE. May you thrive in it a bit more each day. Farewell.

MONJORONSON: Beloved brethren, it pleases me mightily to once again join you in this form of conscious co-creation. This is Monjoronson, and I wish to conduct the energetic exercises from this point forward.

As your Father Michael has helped you in your own restructuring process, feel that aspiration, need, and desire for the planet to also be restructured in the Father's WILL. Generate this phrase from your hearts: PLANETARY RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S WILL. PLANETARY RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S WILL. PLANETARY RESTRUCTURING IN FATHER'S WILL. Let this spiral around the planet north to south pole counterclockwise, and invite these energies to penetrate into the areas where the restructuring is most needed. Feel your love for this world, for all life here as you hold this to the best of your ability. We will conduct the energies at our level. (Pause)

To create a divine order of life on an evolutionary world is no small feat. It is an accomplishment of many, many eons of time. The divine plans of cultivation of a high heavenly order on an evolutionary world is perfect. And you grow in your perfection as you align with these divine plans because they are given to this world and to all humans by the Paradise Father Himself. Humanity is in early stages of understanding what divine plans mean—how they are implemented, how they come to full fruition. It is a matter of human cooperation.

In today's infusion what we are helping this world and you accomplish is a greater inner alignment with the divine plans of correction that you may open to who you truly are—your human potential that adds to the cultivation of the potential of this planet reaching its destiny of Light and Life one day. You are cultivating the evolution of Deity that will one day pervade this planet.

So you see, my brethren, in what a tremendous undertaking you are all now participating. And we thank you for your faithful trust and participation over the years. Now we are at a point where it is possible for this restructuring to go deeper, not only into more of the areas of planetary mind where this restructuring is necessary, but into the deep memory circuits that DIVINE LOVE may prevail and assist in the outworking of the ways of the rebellion to have a lesser influence within the human mind-memory composition. I invite you to focus PLANETARY STRUCTURING IN FATHER'S LOVE to go deep into the planetary memory circuits. We will apply them in the areas of need. We invite you to hold this as an intention and have greater willingness for your brothers and sisters to receive what they need so they may also participate in this great fulfillment of the divine purpose for this world. (Pause)

If you can and if you wish, I invite you to focus on the words RESTORATION OF DIVINE ORDER to move through the RESTRUCTURING energies, helping the memory system remember what it is here to accomplish, to come into alignment with the DIVINE WILL for all life here. Hold focus as best you can and invite RESTORATION OF DIVINE ORDER to imprint into the memory of the planet wherever it is needed and necessary. (Pause)

There is one additional focus I invite you to hold. Let these words move from your heart into the planet: IT IS TIME FOR FATHER'S WILL TO PREVAIL UPON URANTIA. IT IS TIME FOR FATHER'S WILL

TO PREVAIL UPON URANTIA. IT IS TIME FOR FATHER'S WILL TO PREVAIL (the word used here was PERVADE) UPON URANTIA, and simply hold focus as best you can while we impart these words and their divine meaning and value into the memory circuits. (Pause)

Corrections are underway to impart the divine meaning and value of what you are holding and engage with the mind-memory circuits all around the globe. For now, simply allow the restructuring process from your Father Michael to engage with you and to send that out into the planet of what we have been cultivating through your efforts. (Pause)

A mighty adjustment is being made upon the planet now. In time you will know the greater meaning of what it is being cultivated in this moment. (Pause)

Join with us now, elevating our gaze to Paradise and the Creator Deities in whom all things exist. Share your gratitude, your love, your willingness to cooperate with the Paradise Deities, and receive the DIVINE REFLECTION to shine upon you and bring you into deeper areas of realignment within. (Pause)

May the DIVINE REFLECTION OF LOVE radiate deeply within you, bring about a mighty restructuring process into your beings and bring you back to the higher purposes for which you have been created. (Pause)

As you descend from Paradise, maintain that appreciation of what is being provided to this planet. Envision yourselves standing on the earth plane. Your DIVINE LIFE PLAN is holding you in a mighty field and the restructuring process is underway within you, connecting you further to the objectives your Spirit wishes you to accomplish through your human life, and also feeding upon the movement of EVOLUTIONARY DEITY to engage with you to provide you with more momentum to walk your path of faith, to live your purpose joyfully each and every day.

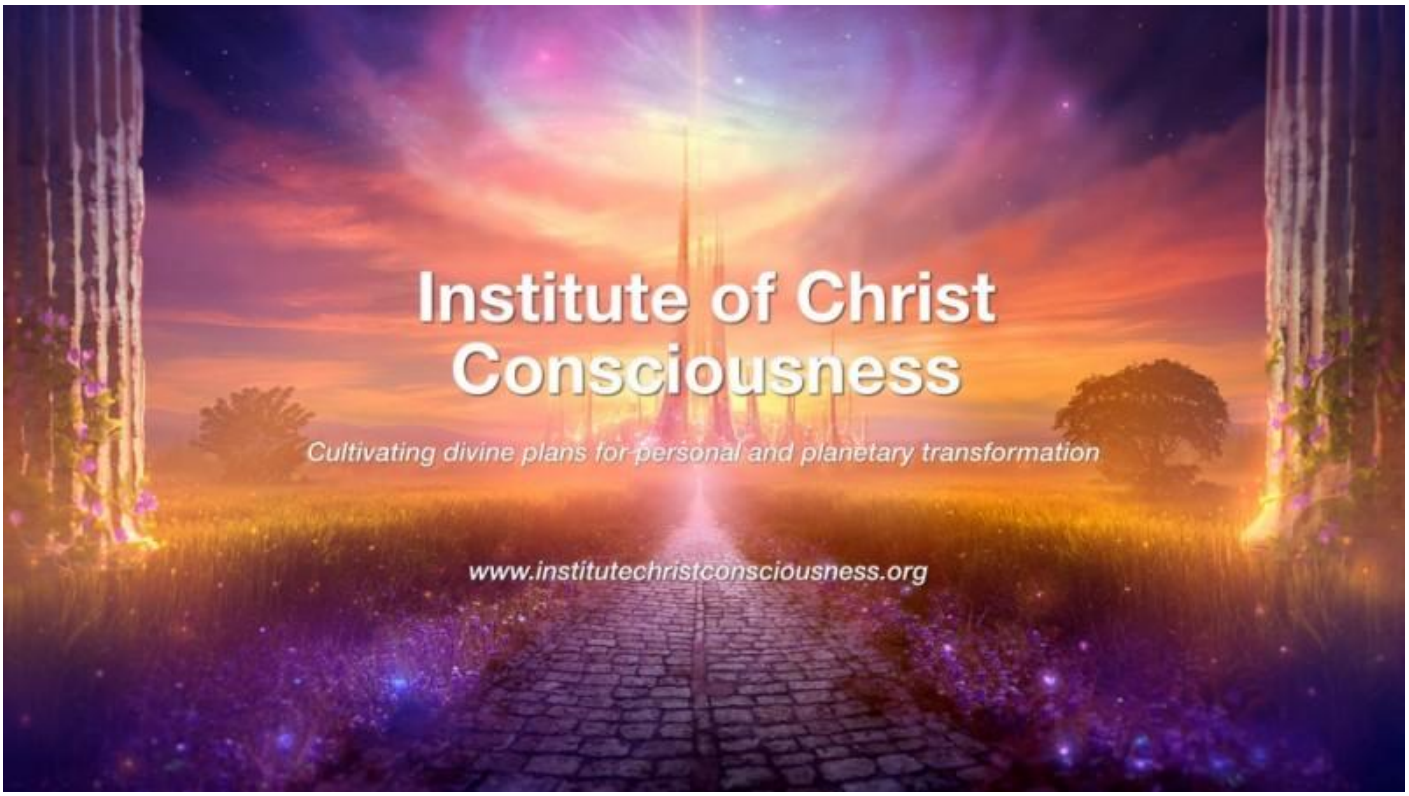

Invite your Holy Mother to weave you into Her JOYFUL SONG OF LIFE, that your individual melody may sing great love and peace and devotion to service to your brothers and sisters and activate the SONG OF LIFE within them.

It is time for this planet to return to the DIVINE WAYS OF LIFE, to bring about the manifestation of the DIVINE PLANS OF CORRECTION, and to live not only your purpose, but the planet's true purpose. This is a mighty undertaking, as you know, and the more you participate in this great endeavor, the more help and spiritual guidance you will receive in transforming you to, not just a mere human, but a mighty champion of the Father's LOVE and PEACE in the DIVINE ORDER OF LIFE. Rest in these words, my brethren. Let them integrate into you and the planet now. And in a few moments will bring this call to conclusion. (Pause)

We have completed our circuitry objectives for today. Our appreciation is upon you. I hope that it will also encourage you to live each day according to the divine plans for your life. All you need is the willingness, and your Spirit will help you with the rest.

With that being said, I leave you with my gratitude. May you always feel more love grow inside and give you greater means and motivation to live the divine plans and purposes for your lives each and every day, growing more lovely and gracious in the Father’s LOVE. Good day.
