PRAYER: Our Paradise Creator Deities, Divine Parents, and Magisterial Son, thank you for what you are about to bestow today through us holding the space for these spiritual dynamics to continue to infuse the planet with all of the corrections that are necessary for the next phase of planetary rehabilitation to occur. We thank all of our planetary and universe brothers and sisters for stepping in and assisting us today in what we are holding that these energies may be distributed widely and deeply throughout the planetary system of consciousness, and bring about more of the corrections that are needed for our world to continue to improve the quality of life — for all life here. We are so grateful to be your children learning these methods of co-creation with spirit. We thank you for your WILL being done today through your GRACE and MERCY. May we now begin. Thank you.

NEBADONIA: Greetings, my beloved children! This is your Mother Nebadonia who speaks! I invite you to focus on me as your Universe Mother. You live in with a vast universe home. This place is so far beyond human comprehension, and yet you are growing as children of Spirit each day in conscious recognition of who you are and what the Father has seeded in you to become more of your sacred life purpose and expressing it into the planet.

We are very grateful for those of you who have answered the call of Spirit Within. This is an undertaking, as you know, that will take many more years to fully implement before the planet is truly ready to answer the era of Light and Life. But you are on that path and you are making progress steadily each day, even though may not notice what progress you make from day to day. This is an accrual of the spiritual insight and value that you grow in incrementally one day at the time. When you look back several months ago, you will be able to see more of the progress you have made, and let that continue to inspire you to continue on this path of growing in communication with your Spirit and developing the mighty potential in your soul to be more expressive out into the planetary system of consciousness.

Today, I invite you to focus on me as your Mother. You all need mothering, a quality of a nurturing love that renders you more safe and secure and living life on this world at this particular stage. While you know there are many changes underway on the planet, you can see that some of these changes are making your brethren very uncomfortable because the tether of stability they have been connected to in the circuits of planetary mind is loosening so that their minds can be infused with greater information.

But because they may not have a spiritual focus or awareness within them, it is causing them to act out in many ways, some even violent. But I say to you, this is a transitory phase and your Father and I look to you, my beloved children, to be more loving anchors of stabilization and peace to help your brothers and sisters open to the spiritual potential within them. We have instructed you that this is not necessarily a verbal exchange. It is by you becoming more stabilized in the circuits of Universe Mind that will render you the ability to radiate more love and peace and security into the hearts of your brothers and sisters who need to feel their own inner stability grow and strengthen.

In today's infusion, as we begin, I invite you to focus on me as your Mother. Feel that need to be mothered again just as you were as a young child. You have an innate need for motherliness, mothering, and I am delighted to provide that to you. So, take a moment to center into your heart. Focus on me as your Holy Mother Spirit and invite me to expand you into what you need to increase your stability and steadiness in these higher circuits that are now more fully installed upon the planet. (Pause)

As I minister into you, if you need to focus on something to keep your mind more calm and your mental current flowing in Spirit, let these words settle into your heart: REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER IN MY BODY, REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER IN MY BODY, REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER IN MY BODY. Focus on these words in your heart as I minister into each one of you, my beloved child. (Pause)

There is a phase of planetary development coming your way which will help you become more creative in cultivating your soul purpose. The planet is making a transition from the influence of the rebellion mind into what you might call the Universe or Cosmic Mind. You are being more connected to a greater repository of information than you have previously been exposed. This is something that is being carefully and skillfully integrated into your human composition, and it is something that will integrate over time, especially as you come to me as your Mother and ask to be fed with these circuits of LIFE that will benefit you in many ways. Some of the endowments you have already experienced, but there is more to come. Continue to focus on me and feel that need for the REMEMBRANCE of my presence in you to deepen, and to expand you in the greater dynamics of LOVE and LIGHT and LIFE. (Pause)

Invite my presence to envelop you, holding you in my embrace, filling you with peace, security, and a deeper sense of connection to who I am as your Universe Mother. The environment in which you live in me is safe and trustworthy. It is time for your physical systems to remember this, to actually experience what it means to live in a safe and secure place growing strong and steadily in who you are, receiving the love and nurturing that you have always needed. Hold that intention and willingness for me to deepen my presence in you that you may experience more of what you need as the planet undergoes more change and opens to a wider reality of perception. (Pause)

As your energy system adjust to these endowments from me, notice if you sense a greater willingness to be more mothering to your brothers and sisters — to extend that dynamic of support, compassion, love, and peace, holding them in the space of safety and security so that their own souls have a chance to be fed with the LOVE it needs in which to grow. The spiritual dynamics that have now been incorporated in the planet are getting stronger for you to experience this and to come into a more natural expression of the tendency to mother your brothers and sisters. This is not only relegated to women, but the men of this world also need to know that it is safe to be in this mothering energy, and that they will find new aspects of their own human natures that they have not previously considered when they open to this higher MOTHER dynamic.

It is something that the planet has been deficient in for many, many generations. And while my presence has returned to this planet, there have been some very deep misunderstandings about the nature and the role of the Mother. But I say to you, my children, it is certainly acceptable for you to open to this infusion today, and to receive more of the MOTHERING nature — the environment in which I provide you to grow strong and steady in your souls. This is not an awareness that has been fully explored on this planet nor fully manifested, but you are in a new phase now and you might call it the MOTHERING phase or the blossoming phase of human consciousness. You are in the early stages of this, but nevertheless, it is underway.

In coming to me, I can expand you in these qualities of MOTHERLINESS, some which will be a surprise to you because it is something new and you have not yet experienced it. But if you hold that intention to become more fully MOTHER-led, you will receive more of what I can provide to you and help your brothers and sisters experience the nurturing, the caretaking, and the devotedness to Spirit that lives within them. You can actually catalyze that spark within them that will also open the door to their minds to their Indwelling Spirits, which will then provide them with the Father’s LOVE at deep fundamental levels and give their minds an opportunity to heal. This is something that is very important now for the planet to receive. So, continue to focus on me and feel that need for the REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER IN MY BODY to deepen and integrate. (Pause)

As my presence deepens in you, know that you are moving into more interconnectedness with LIFE. What does that mean? Take a moment to pose this question to your Spirit that you may perceive and experience this sense of being so fully connected with LIFE at all dimensional levels. Your human energy systems can contain a great deal more of energy than you may imagine or have previously experienced. When you open to this greater interconnectedness of LIFE, you are also providing your own energy system, what you call bandwidth, to pick up on more of the universe information that is vital to your growth at this time. You can hardly conceive of what you have yet to learn and experience.

So many new circuits are coming into the planet to support your deeper recognition about the reverence and sacredness of LIFE and how all things are tightly woven together in this interconnectedness of DIVINE LOVE and WILL. I invite you to hold this intention to experience more of the interconnectedness of LIFE that my presence may continue to bathe and expand your mind and memory circuits even down into the cell memory of your physical systems and enrich you with more LIFE enhancing energies. (Pause)

You might consider that this infusion is helping you open more to the NATURAL INTELLIGENCE contained within the circuits of LIFE. You are opening yourself to a greater flow of information that will enhance your natural intuitive abilities to perceive a broader range of information and render your system of consciousness more available to receive from your Indwelling Spirit. It is as if all of the circuits that were disconnected from the planet are now being restored and are operating at what you might call full speed.

So, in this infusion, feel that need to be more connected to all of the LIFE circuits that you have access to so that you may drink, drink, drink deeply of the WELLSPRING OF LIFE with all of the GRACE and GOODNESs of the DIVINE WILL of the Father. (Pause)

Now as you have received, give. Focus on the planet in your mind's eye before you. Send these energies forth from your heart: BODY REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER. BODY REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER. BODY REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER. Let your gaze spiral the energies around the planet north to south pole counterclockwise, and feel that willingness to hold that intention for this to weave in deeply into the physical circuitry of the planet that your brother's and sister's bodies may receive what this means from a higher perspective of universe life. (Pause)

Invite the helpers to weave these circuits, this language and coding, into the physical composition of all human life that what may be integrated is the awareness of the mind and body and its relation to the Soul and Spirit, fostering more INTERCONNECTEDNESS OF LIFE to pervade the planetary circuitry. (Pause)

Invite my presence to touch your brothers and sisters in the deepest places where they need my MOTHERING touch. (Pause)

Hold that willingness and intention for Mother's LOVE to deepen and expand the circuits of body memory all around the globe. (Pause)

Invite the holy angels who labor in the social institutions of the planet to weave these energies into those areas where greater socialization and harmonization to my presence are needed. (Pause)

The MOTHERING dynamic, you might consider, is the socialization for a greater planetary culture to develop. Your world has suffered from a great deficit of my MOTHERING presence. Now that it is being fully restored, it is important for the humans of this world to embody this so that more harmonization with life and socialization with your brothers and sisters to build a higher planetary culture that is based on the spiritual values of LOVE, TRUTH, GOODNESS, and BEAUTY, which brings about a great social change in consciousness.

You are moving into this phase now. Many people have received the healing and spiritual upliftment they need, so we ask you to hold this now for greater socialization in these dynamics to occur as your brothers and sisters receive the REMEMBRANCE of my presence within their physical bodies. Do your best to maintain focus on BODY REMEMBRANCE OF MOTHER and invite my LOVE to continue to build your brothers and sisters in what they need. (Pause)

Now I invite you to add one more focus, and that is to see the words: SOCIAL HARMONY, SOCIAL HARMONY, SOCIAL HARMONY spiral around the planet north to south pole, counterclockwise, and let the holy angels direct the spiritual dynamic and its meaning and value into the planet to feed more of the human mind and memory system, especially into the body. (Pause)

Let us now elevate our gaze to Paradise, that place of perfection where the three Paradise Creator Deities are domiciled. Spend a few moments with us in simple communion and thanksgiving with the divine plans of evolution creating more space and light to infuse this beautiful world. As you express your gratitude to them, if you wish, you may consecrate your life more fully to the development of your soul and the divine life plans within you that you may be used as a more effective vehicle for the plans of rehabilitation to become a more dynamic part of how you conduct your material affairs. (Pause)

If you wish, you may also invite the Paradise PLANS OF PERFECTION to ring more resoundingly through you and into the planet itself. As you do this, know that you will be given more spiritual energy to aid in your own self-perfecting in the overall perfecting of the social culture of this world. (Pause)

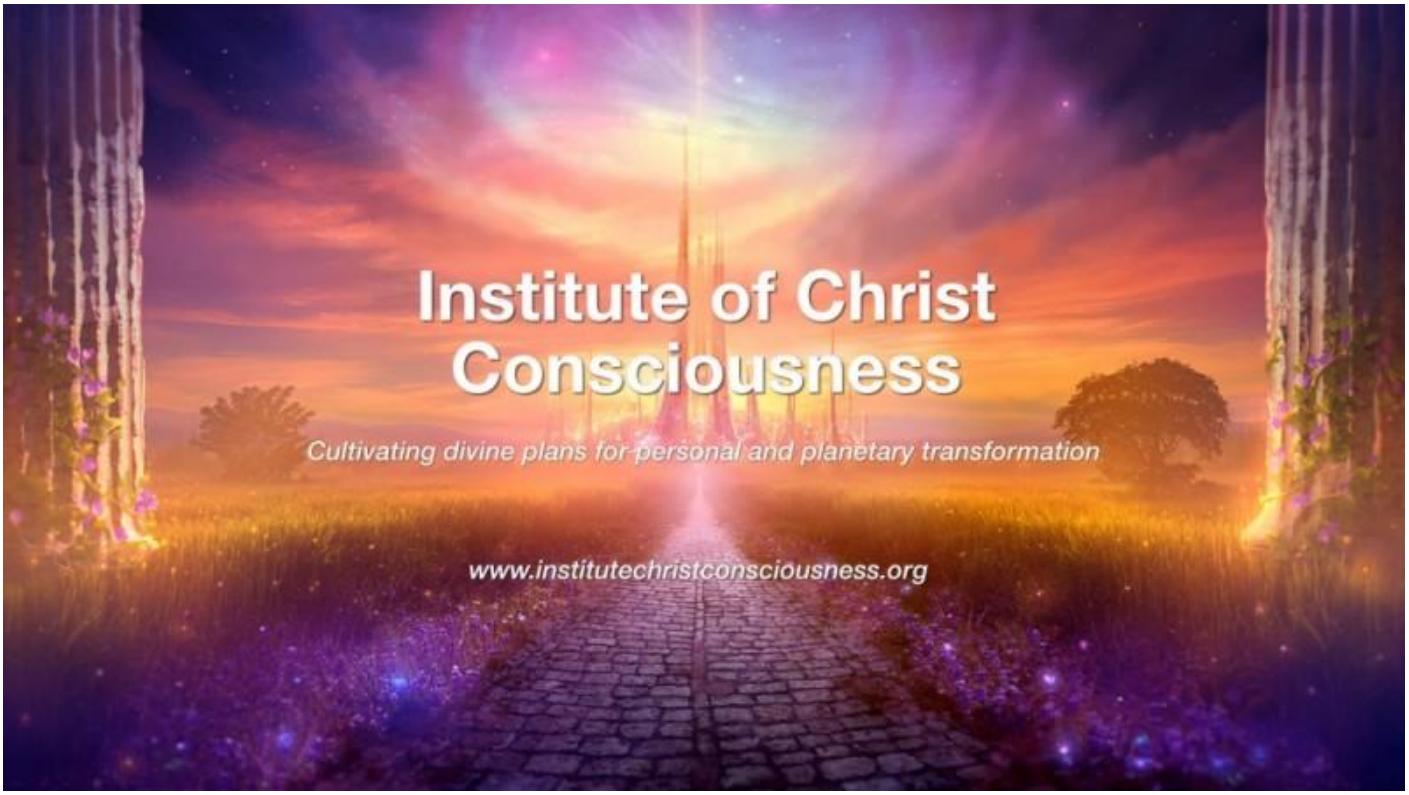

My beloved children, how precious your souls are to your Father and me! Do not think for one moment that we leave you alone as you undertake this massive planetary change. The spiritual realms and other dimensional realms are supporting this planet in ways you can hardly imagine. But you are the most pivotal of all the players in this great undertaking. You are the ones who are making the changes within yourselves in coming together in collaborative and creative groups to do the best you can to hear the plans of Spirit that you may impart them in the ways you are being guided to manifest. The manifestation energies are gaining greater strength on the planet.

In our final moments together, I invite you to descend from Paradise. See yourself standing on the planet and you are deeply rooted into the core of the earth where the divine plans of evolution are held in sacred trust. As you envision yourself in this way, invite the Paradise PLANS OF PERFECTION to ring more resoundingly through the planet and invite the angels to weave Mother’s JOYFUL SONG OF LIFE into all of the circuits all around the globe at all of the dimensional levels for all life to thrive and blossom in what is underway now. Hold this in our final moments together as we reach more saturation points of LIGHT and LOVE and LIFE to manifest on the planet at all levels. Drink, drink deeply of experiencing my presence within you. (Pause)

My children, one day divine ways of LOVE will be fully implemented and manifested as a way of life on this world. You are in a powerful trajectory for this to occur, and it is largely by your taking command of your mind and body and following the divine ways of LIFE given to you by your Spirit that you can manifest living in this way. You do not have to wait for the future for this to unfold, for as you do this and live in the ways of DIVINE LOVE and GRACE, you are adding more spiritual synergy to the planet to make it possible for other people to perceive what is underway.

We have reached the point of saturation we desired to achieve today and I thank you for your faith, your hope, your courage, your willingness to strike out on a path that is so vastly different than the way the planet has conducted its affairs. You are truly some of the most potent forerunners and way-showers of the TRUTH. Your Father and I delight in watching you grow and how you share your gifts with one another. Continue to do so and more will be added into you as the world turns a mighty corner and faces its destiny now drawing it forward. Thrive in my LOVE, my children. It is always yours. And grow in the presence of the Father and His Spirit within you. Good day.
