History: The best place to start is at the beginning

Mankind's efforts to build a global civilization began long long ago. First came the Babylonian empire, then the Medo-Persian empire, followed by the Greco-Macedonian empire (all three were failures) and finally the Roman empire, which is the current system of control and rulership under which we now live and work.

The key to really understanding why our current civilization is so dysfunctional is found in a proper understanding of what the English language calls jurisdiction. There are many kinds of jurisdictions and they all deal with the same thing. Jurisdiction is about who has authority or control over something. It is the very bedrock of our civilization.

The Global Estate Trust

If you've never heard of the Global Estate Trust you're not alone because few of us ever have. That's because it sits on top of the very foundation that our modern civilization is built on, our four primary planetary jurisdictions. As it is with all foundations, these jurisdictions are buried deep under the very structures they are designed to support. Foundations are the domain of designers, architects, and engineers, not media talking heads, politicians, or the general public. You wouldn't ask a hair dresser to fix the engine of your car now would you? Likewise the engine powering our civilization is not something the general public usually understands.

The Global Estate Trust and the system that was put in place long ago to protect, manage and exploit it, is a gigantic umbrella trust under which resides many other smaller subordinate trusts. When added together these trusts are now worth quadrillions of dollars (measured in USD). The system for managing it has recently expired and must now be rebuilt from the bedrock up. COVID-19, vaccines and vaccine passports, plandemics, bankruptcies, and several other things, are all part and parcel of the effort to rebuild this gigantic trust system. With that much money at stake, greedy, immoral, and criminal people will stop at nothing to make sure they can retain power and control over it.

You may ask; "why would such a system expire?"

Because it was designed that way. The core mechanics of the system operate like this:

- The system we have operated under during our lifetime was designed with a very specific life span of 210 years measured according to the Gregorian calendar. After which time the system becomes invalid (bankrupt) and must be entirely reconstructed if it is to continue. FYI: the 210 year span began in 1789, and ended on November 7, 1999. Since November 8, 1999 we have been in a rescission period, during which time a new system for administering the Global Estate Trust is being built, and its assets being transferred.

- This 210 year lifespan of the system is divided into three time spans of 70 years each.
- At the end of the first 70 year span, the system provides the option of going through a Reset to initiate a second 70 year span.
- At the end of the second 70 year span (at the 140 year mark), the system provides the option of going through another Reset to initiate a third 70 year span which will complete the 210 year cycle.
- However, a third 70 year reset is not permitted. Once the 210 year cycle was completed in 1999, the system had to be reconstructed. This total reconstruction is that great event that is being called The Great Reset as opposed to merely another Reset.

Learn more about the Cestui Que Vie Act of 1666 (the existence of life) which is at the root of the Global Estate Trust, and how it lays claim to your life, your property, and even your soul: Cestui Que Vie Act 1666. To gain a proper understanding of jurisdiction it is helpful to study a little history and understand what happened in relation to the Magna Carta.

The Magna Carta, a Summary

Magna Carta 1215 A.D. In signing the Magna Carta King John silently invoked the 1213 Papal agreement relinquishing his crown to the Pope. Thereafter, all lands explored and claimed in behalf of Catholic Monarchs and including the British Monarch as a vassal of Rome, were in fact first and wholly claimed in behalf of the Holy See, which returned a portion of the profit to the vassal monarchs in the form of “jurisdictions”. The Holy See retained the global jurisdiction of the air, granted jurisdiction of the land to temporal authorities (recognized monarchs), and granted the international jurisdiction of the sea to the British Crown Temple to be administered under the ancient Law of the Sea (international admiralty) and Law Merchant (now Uniform Commercial Code).

When it comes to our planet there are 4 primary jurisdictions that constitute the foundation, the natural and artificial bedrock on top of which our entire civilization is built, supported and maintained. These are known as Soil - Land - Sea - Air. When something goes wrong with one or more of these primary jurisdictions then the entire civilization that is built on top of them will suffer the consequences. We are experiencing such consequences today as a direct result of the gross misadministration of two of these jurisdictions, the Sea and Air.

Jurisdiction is a big topic and there is a separate section dedicated to it. It offers a series of essential lessons, the really important lessons you were never taught in school, never taught in church, never taught by your parents, never taught by your governments and leaders. These lessons will give you a solid grounding into the fundamental system that makes our entire civilization work. It's a free high quality educational resource. Deception: Can you see it, it's hiding in plain sight

The Roman Empire

Hiding in plain sight is one of the oldest tricks in the book. It's an ancient and very effective ploy that is being used more today than ever before. Clever symbolism in plain sight is what makes this form of deceit so effective. Would you like to know how it works on a global scale? This presentation lays bare one of the greatest deceptions ever crafted: Vatican Concepts and Symbols.

Classic Video Editing

Old tricks are not the only tricks. New tricks using today's powerful digital technology can be used to create unprecedented deceptions. Let's begin with one of the best known modern forms of video and image deception. The famous green screens.

Advanced Video Editing

As impressive as green screen editing may be, far more advanced editing tools are now available. After looking at this next short video can you still honestly say that you can believe what you see in videos, on TV and on the internet anymore?

If this impressed you, how about another video with even more amazing video effects.

Digital Masks

You may have heard that some people have body doubles. A good body double used to be a very difficult, expensive, and hard to get accessory. Not anymore. Anyone can become a body double with this type of facial mask technology.

Holloportation

Don't have a body double? No problem, now you can be at two places at the same time with Holloportation.

As can be seen from just a few examples, the technology and ability to deceive individuals, nations, and even an entire planet has long existed and continues to improve dramatically. Add to it greed, lust for power and control...well you get the picture.

Deep dive

Today the established media is owned and controlled by the corporate empire. Nothing in print or as a visual presentation within this global organisation is aimed at bringing you truth. The opposite of truth is the lie, a deception.

Today the global outpouring of information from the established and accepted media is commissioned to deceive and to divert while at the same time present a fantasy of fear to create a world of two sides, by impregnating our civilization with the "Us against Them" mindset. A quick look around you will offer ample evidence of this fact.

If you would like to take a deep dive into many historical and current deceptions that are all contributing parts of the current global crisis, then there is no better place to start than at: The Bridge.

Law: What it is and where it comes from

There has been a recent increase in the talk about common law and natural law. Unfortunately there hasn't been very many reality checks accompanying all this talk.

Reality check #1

Common law can be anything. It is not a specific type of law (although some people attempt to define it that way). What does the word common mean? To have something in common means that it applies to two or more people, a group. Therefore, common law can be any law that applies to a group, which can include all natural and artificial laws.

Reality check #2

Natural law is a lot more natural than the claims being made about it. Natural law contains no rights. Natural law as it exists on Earth is merely the outward and consistent expression of the survival mechanism of DNA based life forms. In simpler terms it is the mechanism that brings about the survival of the fittest. Any law and all rights beyond that are entirely man made and artificial.

Reality check #3

Being born on planet Earth as a natural living breathing man or woman does not grant you any natural rights. However, the fact of your natural birth does automatically decree to you two gifts:

1. You receive the gift of temporary life (on average about 75 - 80 years).
2. You receive the gift of a life supporting planet on which to live your temporary life.

That's the only birth right that nature offers you.

comprehensive_list.jpeg

Reality check #4

Apart from the natural law described above, all other laws, and systems of laws, including all rights are entirely artificial and man made.

Reality check #5

But wait! Some will say "what about God's law?". That's a valid question that deserves a sensible answer. Everything we can observe and measure, as reasonable thinking people, tells us the following facts:

Our planet and the universe at large is made up of tremendous variety.

The free will of living breathing men and women reigns supreme over all other definable man made rights and responsibilities found on this planet. Free will is an inherent characteristic of the 2 gifts listed in Reality Check #3.

If there is any value in the pursuit of divinity, or Godliness, then to love your neighbor as yourself, and to do no harm (applied with reason and fairness) are the highest forms of divinity expression to be found on this planet. Beyond that the performances of Joshua ben Joseph (aka Jesus Christ) speak for themselves.

Beyond these simple facts lies a more extensive system of man made laws and statutes that is beyond the scope of this simple page. To learn more about this topic visit the Planetary Jurisdictions pages for in depth coverage.

Language: It's all about communication, or not

As stated in the History section, our current civilization is a product of the Roman Empire, and as such the language of this Empire is at the root of our civilization. Latin is the language of the Roman Empire. It is the language by which our modern civilization is sculpted and defined. YET WHO AMONG US READS, WRITES, AND SPEAKS LATIN TODAY?

If you were able to read that last sentence in ALL CAPS then you have just read Latin. In this particular case, where all caps are used it is referred to as Dog Latin. You don't have to look very far to find such text today. For example, here is a section of a very famous software license agreement in Dog Latin:

License_Agreement.jpg

Dog Latin is a peculiar beast. It is a corrupted form of Latin masquerading as modern English. It has one primary purpose, to deceive! This particular form of deception has become commonly known today as The Justinian Deception. Author Romley Stewart has written a powerful and enlightening booklet that lays bare this powerful deception. Go to this link to read it: JUSTINIAN-DECEPTION \(PDF\).

In all matters of jurisdiction and law, precision of language is vital. Here are some simple examples of how spoken English and written English can lead to errors. It is understood in speech that $2 + 2 = 4$, but these 5 spoken sounds can be written as:

To plus Too = FOR

TOO + 2 = Four

Again we can speak $4 + 4 = 8$, but write $4 + \text{FOR} = \text{ATE}$.

Agenda: The Globalist effort

There is much published information that confirms the existence of a Globalist depopulation agenda.

Question: What are we NOT being told about this nefarious agenda?

Answer: The truth.

The Globalists have published numerous Agendas, Manifestos, Patents, Guide Stones, Transcripts and web sites all warning us of the global warming crisis that their paid scientists are screaming about, and the absolute need to depopulate the planet in order to save it. They have openly published Patents for drastic population reducing bio-weapons such as viruses and vaccines. They also work very hard at manufacturing circumstances that should lead to famine, wide spread illnesses, deadly violence and much more. To be frank there isn't much they haven't already tried, yet we are still here, we are still alive, we are still breeding and eating and consuming, and if the published statistics are to be believed the global population is still increasing rapidly. None of the above strategies have succeeded because they are merely propaganda. Allow me to explain.

They tried endless wars for countless centuries, but it didn't work. It only made us stronger. Such is the nature of DNA. It's very hard to destroy, and the more you attack it the stronger it gets. That is the reality behind the old adage "what doesn't kill you makes you stronger".

They tried traditional diseases, they tried more advanced bio weapons, they tried technology...all failures because they all targeted DNA, and our DNA is simply too robust to destroy that easily. Unfortunately they have finally figured out where our real weak spot is...the mind.

This latest cycle of evil against mankind (some label it as WW III) has been a war against the mind. The first battle was won by evil when it divided us and broke the strength of our unity. They divided us into Us vs Them, Black vs White, East vs West and so on ad nauseum. Once divided we became weak. Once we became weak we became susceptible to irrational fear. Irrational fears such as disease and aging...so you need "medical experts and pharmaceuticals to protect you from your fear", became the one size fits all soothing prescription they offered everyone, for a price of course.

Do you see the clever deception at play?

They broke the strength of our real unity, then divided us and made us weak and fearful, then sold us a fake unity, to replace the one they took from us, in the guise of life saving, pain eliminating medical experts and pharmaceuticals. This one strategy has proven so effective and successful that the prescription or "script" was repeated over and over with every aspect of our now "scripted" lives, and the sheer success of this script has brought us to the precipice that we are now collectively facing. Yet none of this has even begun to depopulate the planet according to their infamous agenda.

So what on Earth is really going on then? Remember, this time around it is a war of the mind! Kill the mind and the war will be won without using a single bullet or bomb. Kill the mind and the depopulation agenda will be a guaranteed success.

So then, what kind of weapon is needed to kill a mind?

Smartphones (and similar technologies), designed to entertain us, emoticon us, sexualize us, and distract us to death. If you ever figure out how a man or woman can copulate with a smartphone, or TikTok a real pregnancy resulting in the birth of a living breathing biological baby out of such a transaction let me know.

No my friends, physical wars, coronaviruses, bioweapons, cryptos, quantum, patents, famines, you name it are NOT the real agenda. Sure some of these things may be real, but their existence is NOT the agenda, because it has been proven time and again that these things cannot destroy us, and the global crime syndicate which is commonly referred to as the Globalists know this very well.

The real agenda is not something you can ward off with a mask. You can't even be vaccinated against it because you carry it with you everywhere you go, whether you're healthy or sick. You place it right beside your bed at night in case you wake up feeling alone. It's the reason why your thumbs are becoming the strongest part of your body, why countless millions of young people are losing the desire for marriage, procreating and raising families. Why would they want to go through all that trouble and expense when they have a free app store well stocked with every digital gadget and toy needed to lobotomize such desires away.

Welcome to the real world, Globalist style.

This is the entrance to the rabbit hole. Do you want to know what's at the bottom of this rabbit hole and why the Globalists are really doing all this?

The answer to their greatest secret is here: Planetary Jurisdictions will give you in depth coverage.

tbg-logo1.png

Odium: Why are — We the people — hated so much?

A long list of well meaning pundits have offered dozens of possible reasons why the Global Crime Syndicate (aka the Cabal, the Deep State, The Swamp, the Globalists, the Elites etc.) might want to cause a massive depopulation event, as has been advertised on the Georgia Guide Stones and in numerous official print publications. The problem with these scenarios is always the same. These pundits get tangled up in the deception, the coded messages and the deceptive symbolism used by those who harbor this nefarious agenda.

Unfortunately, while these scenarios sound fascinating and are entertaining, they don't really get to the root of the matter to expose the deeply buried truth. This truth is a simple one. This truth has been around for hundreds of years as you will learn in more detail in the next Lighthouse File about the Rabbit Hole.

The truth is simple. It's all about the money, lots and lots of money. It's only about the money. It's always about the money. The Global Crime Syndicate values money above the lives of men, women and children. That is the beginning and the end of that truth. As you will learn in the next article, the global financial and monetary system that the Bankers and Elites are in charge of is now entirely bankrupt (starting in the year 1999).

Question: What causes bankruptcy?

Answer: Debt, lots and lots of debt.

Now we are arriving at the crux of the matter. Debt, all debt is a two sided thing. In order for a debt to be made, there must first exist a credit from which the debtor can draw. That is an absolute fact. There simply is no other way to create a debt. With that fact established, let's look at another fact. When a debtor has incurred so much debt from his creditor(s) that he/she/it can no longer manage to pay it off, what are the debtor's options at that point.

Option 1: Go into bankruptcy and obey the prescribed legal remedies.

Option 2: Act outside the law and take matters into your own hands.

There is a reason why I use the term Global Crime Syndicate. That's because the people who are part of it prefer to use Option 2. They consider resolving their problems through criminal acts as a viable option, and the most effective criminal act for getting rid of debt is murder. Kill your creditor(s) and you no longer have to pay back your debt to them, since there is no one left to pay. Killing your creditors may not be nice, but it is very effective.

That my friends is the plain and ugly truth behind this nefarious mass depopulation agenda which masquerades as various other things. These criminals want to avoid paying back their debts, and they are willing to do whatever it takes to make that happen. Now of course they don't want you and I to know this ugly truth, so they use various forms of camouflage to deceive us and keep us in the dark.

You might wonder "what kind of camouflage?" Consider the following short list:

- We need a drastic population reduction because of global warming.
- The pandemic will kill countless millions of people.
- Large scale Wars.

The problem with these scenarios is that they don't work on their own. They need you, me, everybody to buy into these imaginary scenarios. When millions and billions of people start believing in these doomsday type of scenarios, then they start having a life of their own. We the People are the ones who allow these ugly scenarios to come to life. Once we give them life, then the real puppet masters who are hiding in the shadows are quick to exploit them, all for the eventual outcome of killing off as many of their creditors as they possibly can, in order to avoid having to pay us back their massive debts.

Here is an excellent summary of the situation: A BRIEF REPORT For Those Trying to Understand the New World.

tbg-logo1.png

Rabbit Hole: Going down and getting dirty

The term Rabbit Hole is a nice fuzzy metaphor that is superficially appealing to people, but the reality of this metaphorical Rabbit Hole is what US President Donald Trump referred to as The Swamp and the Cabal, but I prefer calling it what it really is, a cesspit of intellectual, scientific, and medical decadence, legal and political abuse, religious indifference, educational distortion, and all around criminality. Therefore the term Global Crime Syndicate is fitting, because its reach has spread globally, it has no respect for law and order, and it is very well organized.

It's finally time for the world to learn what is really at the source, what is that most fundamental root cause behind this terrifying and grotesque monstrosity the world has found itself shackled to since late 2019.

This monster has been given many names by media talking heads (COVID-19, coronavirus, pandemic, plandemic, scamdemic, vaccine passport, The Great Reset, New World Order, Quantum this and Quantum that, and more), all of which are designed to lead unsuspecting people down endless rabbit holes and wild goose chases.

As a side note, if you are not already aware then you need to know the true meaning of COVID-19. I'm not making this up. This truth is fully and publicly documented by the people who devised the vaccination program.

C.....Certificate
O.....Of
V.....Vaccination
ID.....IDentification
19.....2019

COVID is not a disease, it's a program to create a new global identification system starting in the year 2019!

I won't offer you another complex attempt at understanding the names (the branches) of this many headed beast. This approach has been exhausted by thousands of well meaning researchers, and still no lasting fruit has been produced by these noble efforts. Unity and fundamental truth still eludes most of us.

“ Henry David Thoreau wrote: There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root.

Unity can only be found at the root! An invitation to hack at the branches is a favorite tactic that evil uses to distract us from the truth. The real truth is buried deep, like the tap root of a great tree. It is there that we must look. Will you be the one striking at the root?

When faced with numerous options the simplest one is always the best. So I present the simplest option, the simplest explanation, the simplest concepts, the simplest system, the simplest reason, the simplest reality, the simplest truth as to the nature of this root — the four primary planetary jurisdictions: Soil - Land - Sea - Air.

Visit the: Planetary Jurisdictions pages for in depth coverage.

Open minded researchers such as X22, AND WE KNOW, Amazing Polly, Charlie Ward, Robert David Steele (RIP), Catherine Austin Fitts, George Webb, Wayne Jett, and many many others are all doing the best they can. They all seem to have a specialty within which they excel at digging ever deeper, but ultimately most of them seem unable to break out of the silos of their specialty, and they become limited by their inability to also delve into a wider scope of interest/understanding.

While it is good to be a specialist, in order to truly see the big picture one must also become a generalist. It requires both approaches in combination to clearly see the whole.

The big picture is made up of many small and simple issues. When combined all these small issues act together as a large complex system that can seem overwhelming, but that system is not complicated when properly understood.

Specialists are good at figuring out the individual parts.

Generalists are good at understanding the complexity of the overall system.

Either one alone cannot see the complete picture. You have to become both a generalist and a specialist to succeed. Very few people can pull that off because their limited mindsets stumble at what appears to be many contradictions between generality and specialty. The key to success lies in developing an ability to unify the two disciplines into something even greater. You have to stop thinking $1 + 1 = 2$ and start thinking $1 + 1 = 3$. I know this sounds crazy, but it's not.

People who have had a long successful and loving marriage know that their marriage is more than merely the sum of its two parts. They understand how $1 + 1 = 3$. They understand how a man and a woman working in unity can accomplish far more together than they ever could by acting individually as two independent people who are only taking care of their individual needs.

When I look at the plan I see $1 + 1 = 10$.

I see exponentially because I have developed the ability to factor in all the diverse aspects of the overall situation. These are some of the critical topics that need to be understood, to a certain degree, in order to see the whole picture and grasp that deeply buried root of truth.

The difference between the Corporate President of the United States, the Incorporated President of the United States, and the INCORPORATED PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
And the most important of all — Jurisdictions.
All of the above are contained within the global system of 4 primary jurisdictions.

A public educational system was put in place starting in 2017 to keep people informed of the truth, and to teach them how to uncover and understand truth. It's called Q. But access to that truth comes with a caveat. The truth is not easy to take, and not everyone can handle it.

The world has only very recently begun being exposed to the lighter side of pedophilia and ritual sacrifices in the name of Lucifer and Satan, and people are reeling! So far the world as a whole has only been exposed to it as mild forms of child abuse and ritualistic behavior, and people are struggling or in denial. What would happen if the torture side of it were to suddenly become mainstream news to billions of people? What about the blood drinking rituals? The Satanic murder rituals? The underground human breeding farms? The adrenochrome factories?

Yet that is still just the tip of that ugly scary iceberg. Sadly it goes much deeper and gets much worse. Keep digging and you run into the MK Ultra and the Monarch programs and other aspects of personality splitting and mind control for the creation of sociopaths and psychopaths to be groomed as our future industry, military and national leaders, and even as discreet personal messengers for the so called Elites of the global crime syndicate.

And still the rabbit hole goes deeper. More layers down you start to discover about the unholy trinity of the Vatican - Westminster - Washington DC and the destructive iron grip these three City States have on the planet, and how they systematically plan wars merely for profit and the destruction of peoples' free will.

Guess what? We're still not at the bottom of that ugly Rabbit Hole! Digging even deeper we learn about the true purpose of the Vatican and its Universal Religion (aka Catholicism). Do enough digging in that cesspit and you will discover who/what is actually behind it and why...The Holy See (aka the Roman Empire).

View an informative slideshow that explains the design and purpose of Vatican City.

The truth may surprise you: Vatican Concepts and Symbols

And that opens up to yet another stinky rotten mess. The Holy See's incompetent administration of our planet's jurisdictions and resources via the Global Estate Trust and the special purpose vessels used to navigate it (Cestui Que Vie trusts).

Keep digging and you will eventually get to the very bottom of the matter — Jurisdiction. That is where all this global evil we are now witnessing and living through stems from. More specifically the incompetent and criminal administration of our planetary jurisdictions for the past 3000 years.

Only then will you be ready to understand the real, full and undiluted truth. This very same truth that is today manifesting itself as Satanism and Luciferianism under the guise of the New World Order and directed by the Global Crime Syndicate.

What we are witnessing around us today can be likened to a form of controlled demolition striking through all the many layers of deceit, corruption and incompetence. It's a massive task, it's global in scope, and it will take time. The young and weak ones among us must be protected.

The truth is not for everyone, but it is available to those who truly seek it and have the courage to face it.

Here are a few additional points to consider:

1. This is not just an American problem. It's a global problem with many layers of complexity. Nearly every national and regional government on Earth is profoundly corrupted and under the influence of this Global Crime Syndicate.
2. To correct the problem many countries and many layers of complexity have to be dealt with simultaneously, and it requires a massive global team effort...and that is a slow moving train.
3. This deeply entrenched Global Crime Syndicate has no intention of giving up peacefully. They have made many evil preparations and destructive contingency plans in case they should ever get apprehended. That is making the capture of some of them very difficult while preventing horrendous catastrophes from being unleashed. As we witnessed a few years ago with the California fires, aside from conventional weapons, they also appear to command powerful space weapons, and if so, they could unleash them on anyone anywhere since space opens up access to any location on the planet.
4. There are over 7 billion people on this planet. Causing large scale financial collapse, medical collapse, business collapse, chain of supply collapse, energy and food shortages etc, could lead to the unnecessary deaths of countless millions (maybe even billions) of innocent people.

Back in October 2017 the entire world (at least those with internet access) was invited to a buffet of knowledge and understanding. Those who accepted the invitation early got a full sampling of that all-you-can-eat-buffet. Those who joined later may have missed out on a few tasty dishes. Those who are now trying to join at this late hour are still welcome, but sadly there is now little left to the buffet but some scattered crumbs which don't do justice to the fine, tasty and expertly prepared dishes that were available early on.

That buffet is the Q movement of course.

Q started posting publicly in October 2017. We know because We was one of the first people to read these early posts on 4chan. We was there almost from day 1, and was blessed to be able to participate in and benefit from the community spirit of that stupendous movement.

Those of us who have been following Q from early on have no trouble understanding the things that so many are currently finding "hard to believe". Why? Because we early adopters of Q have received a complete education in these matters. The first 100 Q postings are critical. They contain all the foundational material for understanding what was to come after. Q repeatedly taught this lesson: Future Proves Past. In other words the events to unfold in the future, such as the plandemic would confirm what Q taught us several years before.

Those joining in the Q movement much more recently (not having studied the first 100 Q posts) have missed out on so much critical information that they find themselves having great trouble understanding/believing what the early adopters now take for granted and discuss openly.

If you truly desire to understand what is happening and what Q has taught, then you need to start with a proper education. There's no other way about it. Unfortunately, getting such an education at this late stage becomes increasingly difficult, but fear not, we early Q adopters have responded to Q's battle cry and we have made many preparations for this day, since Q knew it would come and we believed our teacher and prepared accordingly. With that said, here are some very good essential resources that loyal and dedicated Q followers have prepared. If you are willing to roll up your sleeves and dig in to the buffet (Q's curriculum) then you will be rewarded accordingly, otherwise you will stay in confusion and disbelief.

All the Q postings in chronological order (newest ones first): qanon.pub

Serial Brain 2 (SB2) is one of the heroes of our movement and had many excellent decodes posted on Reddit. However, as many of us now know, Reddit has shown itself to be part of the censoring problem and the SB2 Reddit account has been removed, so I personally took action and PDFed all of SB2's decodes. Unfortunately PDF could not save the video files (only the links to youtube and other video sharing sites, which may or may not work), but the real meat of his decodes are preserved in PDF format with all the graphics. They are all available (194 PDFs) at this link:

Thought Starters: Restore broken thought patterns

In 1967 Ted Cook published a small booklet titled Thought Starters. In it are various thought provoking parables. A few of them act as a powerful antidote for the mind control damage that has been inflicted on the current generation. Since this booklet is longer in print, some of these parables are being liberally copied here.

A hen and a pig were walking one morning. The hen said to the pig, "Mr. Pig, I'm hungry. Let us have breakfast." The Pig spoke up, "Mrs. Hen, I'm hungry too. Yes, let us have breakfast. What do you suggest we eat?" "Let us have ham and eggs." Replied the hen. "You, Mr. Pig, will supply the ham and I will give the eggs." The pig was silent for a minute or so, and then dryly commented, "That does sound fair, Mrs. Hen, that I supply the ham and you donate the eggs. However, I must point out, Mrs. Hen, that when you give the eggs it is just a contribution on your part; for me, when I give the ham, it's total commitment."

A powerful man died and came up to the entrance of the next world. The angel on duty examined the records and, thereupon, escorted the potentate to a dirty hovel and said, "Mr. Potentate, this is your home for eternity." A few minutes later, the angel escorted a meek looking chap to a magnificent palace and said, "Mr. Good, this is your home for eternity." The erstwhile potentate remonstrated and asked, "How does this guy rate a gorgeous home and I get a rat trap?" The angel replied, "We build your home in Eternity with the materials you send ahead."

Bud, the railroad crossing watchman, was testifying on behalf of his railroad. He told the court, "The car with five occupants came on and on. I was waving the warning lantern. Ten times I swung it, and I jumped aside as the car smashed into the train." In this suit for $100,000 against the railroad, the jury found for the railroad, based on the sworn testimony of the watchman. A friend asked Bud after the trial was over, "Weren't you nervous on the witness stand?" Bud replied, "Yep, very nervous. First time I've ever testified in court. But what made me the most nervous was this. I was afraid their lawyer was going to ask me if the lantern was lit."

The great press of a metropolitan daily came to a sudden halt. After hours and hours, the newspaper's engineers could not get it started again. Money and prestige hung on getting the presses rolling. The publisher called in an expert and flew him in on a chartered plane. The expert looked at the block-long press and, after one minute, tapped a small screw. The roar of the press was heard again. He presented a bill of $10,000 to the publisher. The publisher whistled. He said to himself, "Ten thousand dollars for a minute's work. If I ask him for an itemized statement, maybe I'll shame him into cutting the bill down." The expert submitted his itemized statement:

$ 0.10 for tap
$ 9,999.90 for knowing where to tap

$ 10,000.00

The crows in convention assembled bemoaned their fate, "The farmers are driving us away from the corn fields." One crow spoke up, "Let us attack, We crows outnumber the farmers. Let the call go out to the crows, to the thousands and thousands, to wipe out the farmers in a great blitz." "Hear, hear!" cried the crows. "Let the word go out to all. We will destroy the farmers and we will have the corn." A wise old crow arose, "Hear me, Fellow Delegates. I have lived a long time and over the years I have noted something, which I will tell you. Where there are no farmers, there are no corn fields."

A New Yorker was walking in Times Square with his friend, an American Indian. Suddenly the Indian said, "I hear a bird singing on top of the Empire State Building." "With all the din and noise here at Times Square, you say you can hear a bird singing a mile away. That's something," replied the New Yorker. The Indian then commented, "You hear what you want to hear and see what you want to see." They continued their walk. Quietly the Indian dropped a quarter onto the sidewalk. Fifty people jumped for it, and the Indian repeated, "You hear what you want to hear. You see what you want to see."

A cannibal chieftain asked the missionary, "How can your people in Europe and America eat up all those that are killed in a war?" The missionary recoiled, "We don't eat human flesh." The chief blandly asked, "What do you kill them for?"

For twenty years Mr. Jones was a teacher, and the burden of those years seemed to rest on his shoulders. He was particularly bitter one morning. He heard that Mr. Smith, who had been teaching for just a couple of years, had been promoted to principal. The gnawing bitterness became anger, and he stormed into the superintendent's office with righteous indignation and said, "Mr. Superintendent, I just heard that Smith got the promotion. He has only a couple of years of experience, and I have been teaching for twenty years. This is real discrimination. You are playing favorites. Is Smith related to you?" It took a minute or two to calm Jones down, and the superintendent replied, "Yes, Mr. Jones, it's true that you have been here twenty years and Mr. Smith had only a few years experience, but you force me to point out that you have not had twenty years of experience; you have had one experience twenty times."

Socrates was lecturing at the academy on the philosophy of life. Some of the students were sleepy; some were sleeping as the master lectured. Socrates abruptly said, "A case in point," and continued, "a man was riding on his ass in a neighbor's field. It was a very warm day, and the fellow got off his donkey and took shade in the shadow of the ass. The owner of the field came over and said, "You will have to pay me rent, because you are cooling off in my field," "But, I'm taking shade in the shadow of my donkey," retorted the rider. An argument ensued, and back and forth they yelled at one another about taking shade in the shadow of the ass." By this time, the sleepy students were listening intently. They awakened the sleeping scholars, and everybody in the class was all ears. One student impetuously asked Master Socrates, "What happened? How was the dispute settled?" Socrates walked off the dais in disgust and said, "I really don't know what happened. I don't want to teach students who are more interested in the shadow of an ass than in philosophy."

Poetry: Because poets say it best

THINGS NOT DONE BEFORE

The things that haven't been done before
Those are the things to try.
Columbus dreamed of an unknown shore
At the rim of the far -flung sky.
And his heart was bold and his faith was strong
As he ventured in dangers new
And he paid no heed to the jeering throngs
Or the fears of the doubting crew.
The things that haven't been done before
Are the tasks worth while today.
Are you one of the flock that follows, or
Are you one of the timid souls that quail
At the jeers of the doubting crew
Or dare you, whether you win or fail
Strike out for the goal that's new?

BY THE TOUCH OF THE MASTER'S HAND

'Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But he held it up with a smile.
"What am I biddin, good folk?" he cried,
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar—a dollar—then two, only two"
"Going for three"—but no—
From the room far back, a grayhaired man came forward and picked the bow,
Then wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loosened strings,
He played a melody pure and sweet
As the voice of an angel sings.
The music ceased and the auctioneer,
With a voice that was quiet and low,
Said, "Now, what am I bid for the old violin?"

And he held it up with the bow.
"A thousand and who'll make it two?"
"Two thousand and who'll make it three?"
"Three thousand once—three thousand twice—"
"And going—and gone," cried he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not understand"
"What changed its worth?" Quick came the reply,
"The touch of the Master's hand."
And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and scarred with sin,
Is auctioned cheap to a thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.
A mess of pottage—a glass of wine,
A game and he travels on;
He is going once—and going twice—
He's going—and going—gone.
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a man, and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand!

LESSONS FROM GEESE

Fact 1: As each goose flaps its wings it creates an "uplift for the birds that follow". By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater flying range than if each bird flew alone.

Lesson: When people share a common direction and sense, the community can get where it is going quicker and easier because it is traveling on the t(h)rust of one another.

Fact 2: When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of flying alone. It quickly moves back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front of it.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as a goose we stay in formation with those headed where we want to go. We are willing to accept their help and give our help to others.

Fact 3: When the lead goose tires, it rotates back into the formation and another goose flies to the point position.

Lesson: It pays to take turns doing the hard tasks and sharing the leadership. As with geese, people are interdependent on each other's skills, capabilities and unique arrangements of gifts, talents or resources.

Fact 4: These geese flying in formation honk to encourage those up front to keep up with their speed.

Lesson: We need to make sure our honking is encouraging. In groups where there is encouragement, production is much greater. Individual empowerment results from quality honking.

Fact 5: When a goose gets sick, wounded or shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. They stay with it until it dies or is able to fly again. Then, they launch out with another formation or catch up with the flock.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as geese, we will stand by each other in difficult times as well as when we are strong.

Cosmology: Without cosmology there is only aimless struggle

Mechanical inventions and the dissemination of knowledge are modifying civilization; certain economic adjustments and social changes are imperative if cultural disaster is to be avoided. Man kind must become reconciled to a procession of changes, adjustments, and readjustments.

Religion must become a forceful influence for moral stability and spiritual progression functioning dynamically in the midst of these ever-changing conditions and never-ending economic adjustments.

The paramount mission of religion as a social influence is to stabilize the ideals of mankind during these dangerous times of transition from one phase of civilization to another, from one level of culture to another.

Religion is urgently called upon to function as a wise guide and experienced counselor in all of these new and rapidly changing human situations. Society is becoming more mechanical, more compact, more complex, and more critically interdependent. Religion must function to prevent these new and intimate interassociations from becoming mutually retrogressive or even destructive. Religion must act as the cosmic salt which prevents the ferments of progression from destroying the cultural savor of civilization. These new social relations and economic upheavals can result in lasting brotherhood only by the ministry of religion.

A godless humanitarianism is, humanly speaking, a noble gesture, but true religion is the only power which can lastingly increase the responsiveness of one social group to the needs and sufferings of other groups.

Religion must actively keep pace with all these advances in civilization by making clear-cut and vigorous restatements of its moral mandates and spiritual precepts, its progressive philosophy of human living and transcendent survival. The spirit of religion is eternal, but the form of its expression must be restated every time the dictionary of human language is revised.

Religion must stay solidly grounded while looking toward the cosmos for ever increasing enlightenment and revelations of truth.

There is a paucity of consistent and sensible information from which to derive a meaningful cosmology. However, there is one source which stands above the rest.
